

ASEE ENGINEERING DEANS GENDER EQUITY INITIATIVE

#

Cultivating Diverse Talent: Executive Leadership in Academic Technology, Engineering and Science (ELATES) Panel Presentation

Engineering deans are you overlooking opportunity for cultivating talent, and building inclusive leadership? JOIN this panel of talented ELATES Alumni to learn about the transformative personal, professional, AND institutional aspects of the ELATES program, help foster development of diverse talent, support planful succession planning, build the college leadership pipeline, and maximize return on investment by sponsoring an ELATES Fellow.

MODERATOR: Dr. Sharon Walker, Dean of the College of Engineering and Distinguished professor of Civil Engineering at Drexel University, will lead a panel discussion on how engineering deans can retain, and cultivate the talent of women faculty through Drexel's ELATES program.

PANELISTS: ELATES Engineering Alumni

Joan Carletta, Ph.D., Associate Dean of Undergraduate Studies & Professor of Electrical and Computer Engineering at the College of Engineering, The University of Akron.

Michele Marcolongo, Ph.D., NEW Drosdick Endowed Dean of the College of Engineering, Villanova University; current Department Head & Professor of Material Science and Engineering Drexel University; ELATES Co-Founder.

Tonya Peeples, Ph.D., Associate Dean for Equity & Inclusion & Professor of Chemical Engineering at the College of Engineering, Penn State University.

Amy Throckmorton, Ph.D., Associate Professor Biomedical Engineering at Drexel University; current ELATES Fellow.